

October 2017 Kingpin's Alley Tournament Wrap-up

Lauren Piotrowski of Schenectady won three matches in the stepladder finals, including a 238 – 227 victory over Tom Hankey of Great Barrington, MA to win the Capital District Youth Scholarship Tour tournament held at Kingpin's Alley on Saturday, October 28th.

The third-seeded Piotrowski (U20 Girls) began the stepladder finals began with 212 – 201 victory over the fourth-seeded Nate Purches of Marlboro, MA (U15 Boys). Purches earned $90 in scholarships for finishing first in the Under-15 Boys Division and fourth overall. Piotrowski then defeated the second-seeded Brandon Wolf of Schenectady (U20 Boys) 225 – 186 to set up the title match. Wolf won $105 in scholarships for finishing second in the Under-20 Boys Division and third overall.

Hankey began the title match with two strikes to jump out to a 20-pin lead. Piotrowski responded with six consecutive strikes in frames two through seven to close the gap and take a 21-pin lead. Hankey finished with four strikes over his final three frames to force Piotrowski to mark for the win; which she did with a spare and strike in the tenth frame to earn her second consecutive (and career) title and $150 in scholarships for finishing first overall and in the Under-20 Girls Division. Hankey won $185 in scholarships for finishing first in the Under-20 Boys Division and the runner-up overall.

Competing in a six-game qualifying round on a customized short length sport-level oil pattern, Matthew Flandreau of Voorheesville jumped out to the lead following Game 1. Hankey, who was second after Game 1, rolled a 268 in Game 2 to surge into the lead, where he would remain through the remainder of qualifying. Hankey then won all three of his semifinal matches – highlighted by a 279 in his final match – to extend his lead to 127 pins and earn the top seed for the finals. Wolf and Piotrowski each won one semifinal match to earn the second and third seeds, respectively. Purches won all three of his matches to rise from sixth place and earn the fourth and final spot for the finals.

For the first time ever, an Under-12 event was contested concurrent to the Qualifying Round. Jackson Brewer of Clifton Park defeated Zachary Bombard of Troy over the six games to become the winner and earn a $30 scholarship.

A total of 36 bowlers (19 U20 Boys, 4 U20 Girls, 6 U15 Boys, 4 U15 Girls, and 2 U12 Boys) competed in the third tournament of the season. The remaining scholarship winners in the Under-20 Boys Division are Spencer Catlin of Diamond Point ($60) in third place (fifth overall); and Alex Alesio ($40) in fourth (seventh overall). Tim Bush of Altamont won a $35 scholarship for finishing second in the Under-15 Boys Division (8th overall); and Morgan Brunet of Plattsburgh finished first in the Under-15 Girls Division (20th overall) and earned a $75 scholarship. Our talented youth bowlers earned $875 in scholarships; bringing the season total to $2,410.

Bush, Jessica Shufelt of Watervliet, Garrett Wolf of Clifton Park, and Micaela Barbolt of Gansevoort earned entries into the 2018 USBC Junior Gold Championships to be held in Dallas.

Our next tournament will begin at 12:30 pm on Saturday November 18th at Del Lanes In Delmar.
