2015 CDYST Holiday Open Wrap-up

Jonathan Bowman of Peru rolled a 930 four-game series to win his record 11th Capital District Youth Scholarship Tour title in the 2015 CDYST Holiday Open held at Towne Bowling Academy on Sunday and Monday December 27th and 28th. 43 talented bowlers combined for 73 total entries in this special event where they could compete anytime during the tournament hours and re-enter as often as they would like.

Bowman entered for the first time midday on Sunday and took the lead with an 875 four-game series. He immediately re-entered and raised the bar to 930 as competition ended on Day 1. His leading score would withstand multiple challenges on Day 2; enabling him to win his third consecutive Holiday Open and a $325 scholarship as the top finisher in the Boys Division.

Early on Monday, Brandon Wolf of Schenectady opened with games of 244, 266, and 234 to put himself in position to take the lead with one game remaining. However, he left a 10-pin on his second ball in the tenth frame to finish second with a 925 series. Later in the day, Andrew Hall of Westborough, MA began with games of 246 and 266 in route to an 894 series that enabled him to finish third. Wolf earned a $175 scholarship for his runner-up finish and Hall earned $125.

In the Girls Division, Jenna Lemke of Delmar entered early on Sunday morning and posted a leading score of 732. However, Jenna Rose Harrington of Barneveld rolled a 765 series to take the lead shortly thereafter and remain the top scorer as Day 1 concluded. Returning late on Monday and competing in the final squad, Lemke began with games of 258, 211, and 208 to cruise to the Girls Division title for the second consecutive year and win a $200 scholarship. Her 864 four-game series placed her fifth overall. Mariah Williams also re-entered as part of the final squad and rolled a 217 in her final game to finish with a 767 series to edge into second and earn a $125 scholarship. Harrington finished third and earned a $75 scholarship.

Additional scholarship winners in Boys Singles are as follows: Christopher Radliff of Schenectady ($75) in fourth place; Zeph Kozakiewicz of Albany ($60) in fifth (sixth overall); Zack Terry of Schenectady ($50) in sixth (seventh overall); Jahlil Young of Albany ($40) in seventh (eighth overall); Kenny Livengood of Ravena ($40) in eighth (ninth overall); Jordan West of Cohoes ($35) in ninth (tenth overall); and Jeh'ron Cherry ($30) in tenth (11th overall). The remaining scholarship winners in Girls Singles were Haley Groat of Mechanicville ($50) in fourth place (19th overall) and Haley Youker of Minoa ($30) in fifth (23rd overall).

Bowlers also had the option to simultaneously use their singles scores in tandem with other bowlers competing at the same time to form doubles teams. Radliff and Hall rolled a combined score of 1,704 to edge the team of Bowman and Terry by four pins to top 23 pairs in the Boys/Mixed Doubles Division and earn $140 scholarships. The runners-up won $75 scholarships for finishing second; Harrington and Bowman finished third ($50 each); Radliff and Terry finished fourth ($35 each); Kozakiewicz and Wolf finished fifth ($20 each). In Girls Doubles, Harrington and Groat rolled a combined total of 1,382 to finish first and earn $40 scholarships.
